The graphic features a stylized 'M' logo composed of geometric shapes in the top left. The background is a vibrant collage of people in motion, wearing headphones and holding devices, set against a purple and blue gradient with abstract wave patterns.

MMEF focuses on the vibrant media and entertainment sectors in South Africa, such as broadcast and streaming television productions, out-of-home media, and dynamic advertising. This fund offers an exciting opportunity for investors to participate in a high-yielding arena, with projected returns between 16% to 24% per annum, and a current yield of 18% per annum.

Investors looking to capitalise on this opportunity can now invest directly through the JPP platform. Detailed investment materials and terms are available on the platform to ensure informed decision-making. For seamless processing, investors are advised to provide all required documentation as specified in the investment process.
