KFM has announced a refreshed presenter line-up. From 3 October popular personality Carl Wastie joins the KFM team. Cape Town born-and-bred Wastie is well-known for his radio and TV work. He moves in to the new 1 - 4pm slot.

“Radio is my 1st love and joining the KFM team is going to be an incredible adventure and a chance to create something new. A genuine, honest relationship with listeners is critical for me - continuing that journey with this, on a new platform, is very exciting!” says Carl Wastie.

Another exciting addition sees Ryan O'Connor's Breakfast Show extended by an hour, giving fans even more of their favourite start to the day.

Daytime changes include a Voicenote-driven hour making office listeners an integral part of the programming.

Ian Bredenkamp moves to the Weekend Breakfast show - he'll focus on hyper-local content, covering events and lifestyle topics.

“Over the last few months we've working on creating a fresher line-up on KFM and introducing WhatsApp in the overall mix of our sound. The uptake of WhatsApp has been seamless and has opened another dimension to the sound of Cape Town through our listeners” says Colleen Louw, Station Manager of KFM.

New daytime roster:

6 - 10am KFM Breakfast with Ryan O'Connor

10am - 11am: Whats Up In the Workplace

11am - 1pm: Sechaba G

1 - 4pm: Carl Wastie

4 - 7pm: Rob Vember
