

2020 Bookmark Awards judges are announced

Issued by IAB South Africa

14 Nov 2019

The IAB SA has announced a panel of industry leaders who will judge the Bookmark Awards in 2020.

The Bookmark Awards seeks to recognise and reward digital excellence and empower all members of the digital media and marketing industry to thrive in the digital economy.

Andrea Quaye, Vice President of Marketing at Anheuser-Busch InBev and jury president of the 2020 Bookmark Awards says, "I'm thrilled to be joined by such an esteemed and professional Bookmarks Jury in 2020 – a group of extremely talented individuals who bring a diverse point of view to the judging process and who share their expertise to set the benchmark for digital excellence in South Africa. Our job is to define what is considered to be the best work in digital – for its innovation, creativity, impact and effectiveness. To win at The Bookmarks, demonstrates excellence in achieving business results through the power of digital."

Eight clear jury panels

The IAB has listened to industry feedback and has divided the judging of work into eight clear jury panels: marketers, builders, publishers, innovation engineers, gamers, performance marketing, special honours and a new 8th panel: social, community and digital influencer marketing.

Matthew Arnold, chief engagement officer at VMLY&R, IAB SA Agency Council Member and IAB SA 2020 Bookmarks Committee lead says "Bookmarks 2020 is about allowing brands to be brave and giving them the platform and tools to illustrate the business impact of their campaigns. The awards consistently strive to offer a host of practical examples of how marketers, agencies and publishers have executed digital campaigns to deliver sustainable impact on their business. We are especially excited about the newly introduced categories, as well as the decision to elect an 8th panel representing specialists in Social, Community and Digital Influencer Marketing."

The inaugural Social, Community and Digital Influencer Marketing Panel is led by Kalliebree Keynerd, Head of Social at

Joe Public Connect; The Marketing Panel is led for the second year by Molefi Thulo, Executive Creative Director Ogilvy South Africa; Publishers by Chris Louw, Head of Content for Hive Digital and IAB SA Publisher Committee Chair; Performance Marketing by Clare Trafankowska, Head of Digital Carat for her second year; Builders by Robyn Campbell, Managing Director at Hello FCB+ Cape Town and IAB SA Agency Council Chair; Innovation Engineers by Dee Chetty, Lead - Accenture Interactive Africa, Special Honours by Charlene Beukes, GM at 24.com and IAB SA Executive Board Member for her second year; and Gaming by Gabriel Ramokotjo, CEO Ekasi Sports.

Build brands digitally

There is no doubt that digital interventions have the power to transform business, but our industry currently faces the challenge of creating a clear set of criteria for the measurement of success. As we look to the future, it is the responsibility of the IAB, its members and the industry to create the benchmarks for business excellence in the digital economy. The Bookmark Awards presents the opportunity to develop measurement data to develop benchmarks for business excellence, and our current awards platform and data is a strong foundation for this to take place. This is why the Bookmarks have the potential to affect industry change with the IAB SA and CONNECT Benchmarking report that has commenced under the leadership of Melissa van Zyl, Partner at M&C Saatchi Connect and previous IAB SA board member, due for delivery in Q1 2020.

Paula Hulley, CEO of the IAB SA says, “A huge thank you goes out to the industry for their incredible response to the 2020 Bookmarks nomination process, including a wide spectrum of small to big companies, specialists and digital generalists, independents and groups with diversity across company, age, gender, race, capability and expertise. It is this strong, highly-skilled, diverse panel of judges that represent the evolution of the digital industry. We feel privileged to hear their unique insights on this year’s work, as the 2020 Bookmarks sets the benchmark for digital excellence in our country.”
