

BASA seeks new Regional Representative in EC

Issued by Business and Arts South Africa

18 Jan 2011

Business and Arts South Africa has a vacancy for a Regional Representative in the Eastern Cape.

Business and Arts South Africa's (BASA) national footprint is strongly supported through its regional structures in the Eastern Cape, KwaZulu-Natal, and the Western Cape.

After a successful tenure as BASA's Representative in the Eastern Cape, Melanie Manson, will be leaving the organisation at the end of January to further her work with Hospice.

BASA seeks applicants for the position of Regional Representative in the Eastern Cape. This part-time position is most suited for an individual with a solid understanding of the arts landscape, and the investment opportunities which the sector presents for business. The Regional Representative is required to represent BASA within the arts sector as well as on business platforms. Specific focus areas include building corporate membership, facilitating networking opportunities, growing the mentorship programme, as well as assisting in managing BASA's brand in the Eastern Cape.

The deadline for applications is the 21st of January. Interested applicants should send a CV and cover letter to:
