

Radio Mozambique sabotaged

Radio Mozambique, the country's national radio station, has been forced off the air on medium wave for the second time in two months after thieves broke into the broadcasting centre in Matola on Sunday and not only stole copper wire but also deliberately smashed broadcasting equipment.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>