

Karen Zoid launches a new boutique music studio

Karen Zoid has established a fully equipped boutique studio called Mothership Studios in Philadelphia, Western Cape. The studio is equipped with a restaurant and a bar.

The studio also has an SSL duality desk for music production, make-up/dressing rooms, crew rooms, and a loading bay at the rear of the studio.

Zoid will fill the role of creative director and the studio will be operated by Melpro Music.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>