

Karoo boy goes to SA

Producer Anant Singh has acquired the movie rights to the Sunday Times Literary Award runner-up, Karoo Boy, written by Troy Blacklaws. The rights were acquired after a bidding war with two UK based companies. Karoo Boy will be directed by local commercials director Sunu Gonera. The script of Karoo Boy is currently under development by Videovision Entertainment and the film will go into production late next year.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>