

Oxygen Communications announces new account wins

Oxygen Communications has announced that it has added five new contracts to its stable of clients across technology, B2B, communications, mining as well as event and sponsorship in the past three months. The agency recently signed agreements with Digicall Group, Sigma and Nova, who all specialists in business processes, communications technology and human capital services.

Oxygen Communications has also renewed its contract with its long-standing client, TLT-Turbo GmbH, as well as Spar as a campaign management and sponsorship partner for its upcoming Spar Women's Challenge race.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>