

Tetra Pak among the 50 sustainability and climate leaders

Tetra Pak , a multinational food packaging and processing company, has been recognised as one of the world's top 50 companies for sustainability and climate leaders. The company was recognised for its commitment to leading the way to a sustainable future, with a documentary film showcasing its journey.

The video features interviews with members of Tetra Pak's global leadership team and highlights how the role of the food sector in tackling climate change is increasingly important.
