

Kolosa Madikizela rejoins Pragma Africa

Pragma Africa has appointed Kolosa Madikizela as its new managing director. She rejoins the company after a brief stint away.

Her responsibilities will include the execution of the leading asset management company's strategic plan, looking after the company's entire African interests as well as ensuring that Pragma's culture of diversity and inclusiveness remains intact.

Madikizela has extensive experience in facilities management and maintenance strategies.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>