

Mackay Paints appoints Lindo Mnisi as its brand ambassador

Manufacturer and distributor of superior and durable paint products, Mackay Paints, has announced the appointment of Lindo Mnisi as its brand ambassador.

Mnisi is a young, dynamic leader in the community of business people, with a hardware store chain in townships and real estate business. With more than 30,000 followers on social media, he's proven to have some influence. He is frequently featured in the media on business-related topics.

Mnisi is a qualified journalist who has worked for several media outlets such as ANN7, SABC and eNCA over the past few years. His most recent job was with DNA Brand Architects, a PR and advertising agency in South Africa, within which he handled brand communications and PR for several blue-chip companies.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>