

Johette Smuts joins PayProp as head of data and analytics

Johette Smuts will be joining PayProp as its new head of data and analytics. Before joining PayProp, Smuts worked as Coronation's core data analyst.

In her new role, Smuts will author the PayProp Rental Index; it is compiled from transactional data collected by PayProp and released quarterly as a guide outlining trends in the South African residential rental market. Smuts holds a Bcomm honours in financial risk management, which she obtained at Stellenbosch University.
