

Salesforce joins streaming services

Global cloud-based software company, Salesforce has announced Salesforce+, a new streaming service for live experiences and original content series.

Viewers around the world will be able to watch live broadcasts and original series from any web browser starting 14 September 2021 by signing up for a free Salesforce+ membership through Trailblazer.me ID.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>