

BPL scoops PMR Diamond award

Bidvest Panalpina Logistics (BPL), one of South Africa's largest logistics outfits, won the PMR Diamond award for the second year in a row, scoring 4.18 out of a possible total of 5. The awards, which celebrate excellence, is researched by consultancy and research company PMR.africa with South African exporters and importers, who are asked to give a score to participating companies from 1 (lowest) to 5 (highest) across a range of 17 attributes, including proactive communication, risk management of products being transported and value-added solutions up and down the supply chain.
