

White Square Festival extends deadline

White Square, one of the largest international creativity festivals in Europe, has announced the new deadline for entries will be 15 May. Projects can be submitted online and will be judged by a professional jury.

For more information and to register, visit the White Square website.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>