

Women honoured at opening of JSE

Five of the women included in the Inspiring 50 women in Africa attended the opening of the Johannesburg Stock Exchange on 31 August 2017. Held at the end of Women's Month, the event was held to symbolise how women are becoming increasingly involved and pivotal in the technology and finance sectors.

Blowing the kudu horn and celebrating the opening of the JSE

Darlene Menzies blowing the kudu horn

Inspiring 50 women team

Ladies warming up to open the JSE

Vera Shaba, Nokuthula Ndlovu, Darlene Menzies, Lindiwe Matlali, Ngwako Ramohlale and Ndoni Mgunu

At least 56% of employees at the JSE are women, while six out of nine top executives along with the JSE CEO and chairperson are female.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>