

Spotify will finally be available in SA

Suspensions have been confirmed as Spotify announced that the music streaming service will launch in South Africa on 13 March 2018. SA is set to be the first African country to have the service.

Spotify offers a choice between an ongoing free ad-supported music service and a fully featured, ad-free subscription option. Additional information about the Spotify service, pricing, and content will be made available on 13 March 2018.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>