

The Capital Hotel Group appoints four new GMs to flagships hotels

Nelson Rodrigues has been appointed the new GM of The Capital Moloko, one of The Capital Hotel Group's five star properties in Sandton. Rodrigues was part of the opening team at The Westcliff Hotel, worked for the City Lodge and Best Western groups, and was GM at Bushmanskloof in the Cederberg, which garnered 10 international establishment and conservation accolades under his management.

Adrian Willmers, appointed as new general manager of The Capital 20 West, has extensive hospitality experience, stemming from a well-grounded five star background.

Julian Joubert, new general manager for both The Capital Villa and The Capital Esprit, comes with vast experience from opening and managing the Holiday Inn Express in Pretoria-Sunnypark.

Christine Liebenberg, new GM for The Capital Empire, has more than 20 years experience in the industry and is recognised for her ability to inspire staff while spotting trends and improving the hotel's competitive edge.
