

TV Africa to showcase Africa's world cup campaign

TVAfrica has secured the sole rights to broadcast the 2002 Soccer World Cup Finals to sub-Saharan Africa, ensuring the best coverage of the continent's five representatives in the global extravaganza. The giants of African broadcasting will be there from the kick-off on Friday, May 31 through to the final on Sunday, June 30 as Senegal, Cameroon, South Africa, Nigeria and Tunisia battle it out against the leading soccer nations in the world for World Cup glory.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>