

Olivier Perillat-Piratoine joins Club Med Southern Africa as managing director

Club Med Southern Africa has announced the appointment of Olivier Perillat-Piratoine as its new managing director. Perillat-Piratoine assumes the role after holding the interim position since July 2021 and takes on the challenging task of relaunching the local market after these two years of crisis.

Perillat-Piratoine comes to the position with vast experience having previously been the head of sales, then the head of sales for the meetings and events team at Club Med Southern Africa.
