

Etihad, Sixt announce a new partnership

According to inside travel, Etihad and mobility service provider Sixt have entered a partnership to provide airport transfers to passengers globally.

The partnership allows customers to book extra transfer service online for their flight via etihad.com immediately after purchasing their airline ticket or even up to one hour in advance. The new service covers various car categories from limousines to SUVs - all operated by professional chauffeurs.

Read more on this here.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>