

Exciting changes in April on OFM

Issued by OFM Radio

31 Mar 2015

The much anticipated new presenter line-up will commence in April on OFM, the sound of central South Africa. Yolanda Maartens will be joining André Kunz as co-host of the Breakfast Special weekdays from 6 to 9am. Presenter Cyril Viljoen will move from after midnight to take over from 12 to 3pm. Cyril is a great asset to the station and will also present the OFM Top 10 at 10 on Saturdays from 10am. Isabel Venter will host the 9am to 12pm programme.

The evergreen James Kilbourn will present Before Dawn weekdays from 5-6am. A new recruit, Zelda Goetz will present midnight to 3am from Monday to Friday. Another new voice to the station is Duncan Bayne, who will join the Siesta team weekdays from 3 to 7pm as a producer. He will replace Enriko Klopper, who will continue presenting weekdays from 7 to 10pm. Enriko will be joined by another new voice, Lerato Lelia, who will bring a feminine touch to the show. Lerato will also get the party started on Saturdays from 7pm.

The Legends Show presented by Jeremy Mansfield is a new addition to the OFM line-up on Sundays from 7pm with Pieter Venter presenting the innovative 'This Week on OFM.co.za' from 9pm. The show is aimed at highlighting the engaging, informative and entertaining content the on-air team place on South Africa's fourth largest radio station webpage.

On 6 and 27 April, OFM listeners will rule the airwaves on all request day. All they have to do, is SMS 'play' and their favourite song to 36636 at R1.50 per SMS and then stay tuned to OFM to hear if it gets played.

The music continues when OFM hosts South Africa's most loved musicians to the Bloemshow from 23 to 30 April. Artists performing during the week include Bobby van Jaarsveld, Elvis Blue, Riana Nel, Bok van Blerk and Jay and Lianie.
