The end of March will see Bailey and her family leaving South Africa, for their brand new adventure in Greece. "This hasn't been an easy decision for us, I love being at Smile 90.4FM and bringing a Smile to listeners every day, however we are so excited for what is to come," said Schneider.

You can catch Bailey on air, weekdays from 9am to 12pm until the end of February.

"We are going to miss Bailey's humour and presence as part of our work day. She has left big shoes to fill but we do understand her decision and wish her and her family every success in their move," said Smile 90.4FM Programming Manager, Naveen Singh.
