21 Aug 2013

Bonnie Tyler fans can expect a Total Eclipse of the Heart when the electrifying Welsh songbird performs one performance at the Callie Human Centre, on 1 September 2013 at 6pm.

Bonnie Tyler, the husky-voiced pop-rock diva behind hits such as Lost in France, It's a Heartache and Holding out for a Hero, will celebrate Spring Day with OFM and the people of the City of Roses. The concert marks Tyler's long-awaited return to South African stages. She last performed here 20 years ago. Having released a succession of irresistible classic songs in the 1970s and 1980s, she continues to occupy a special place in the hearts of many South Africans.

Tickets for this once-off concert are available at Computicket from R400 each.

Tyler has been working on a new album, titled Rocks and Honey, which reportedly has a country-rock flavour and is due to be released this year.
