Are you ready to join an ink-slinging, sailor-talking, shoulder-dusting, big thinking, team of creative reprobates? Then, welcome to Guerilla!

We're looking for a mid-level designer that has honed his/her skills during the years, whilst working through egotistical torture. You need to come standard with Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign and hopefully dabbled in some motion. If you're dope at illustrations, love tech and have UI/UX knowledge, even better.

You need to be a rebel, everything you've ever absorbed in your previous lifetime, light it up and set it on fire.

If you are a designer, who can take concepts and make 'em come alive in layout, we dare you to apply. Oh, and please send a link to your portfolio when applying, if you don't have a link to your portfolio, then eish, what can we say...don't apply. Askies.

Requirements:

Adobe CC suite:

- InDesign
- Illustrator
- Photoshop
- XD

Advantageous:

- Animation
- UI/UX
